STUDENTS QUESTIONNAIRE 1962

EXPLANATORY NOTE

You will no doubt remember completing previous forms for this study: much valuable information has been gained as a result of these. We are asking you now to complete this questionnaire, so that we may get a full picture of what you are doing at the present time.

Please answer every question: some questions have numbered answers: with those questions all that is necessary for you is to put a ring round the number of the answer that is right for you. Other questions require you to write two or three words.

Thank you very much for your co-operation both now and in the past.

43. Now here are some questions about the way you behave, and feel, and act, after each question there is 'yes' a '?' and a 'no'.

Try and decide whether 'yes' or 'no' is how you usually feel and then circle the 'yes' or the 'no' like this: no. If you find it quite impossible to decide, then circle the '?', like this: (?). However don't use the question-mark unless you feel you have to. Work quickly and don't spend too much time on any question, we want your first reaction.

Don't leave any questions out. There are no right or wrong answers - this isn't a test of intelligence, it is simply to give us an idea of how you feel and behave.
